Are you passionate about turning complex data into strategic decisions that improve patient outcomes? As an Integrated Insights Business Partner, you will be at the heart of shaping the future of Novartis' Immunology business by transforming market data, customer insights, and performance analytics into impactful business actions. This is a unique opportunity to become a trusted advisor to senior stakeholders, influence key commercial decisions, and help drive growth through data-driven storytelling, strategic thinking, and cross-functional collaboration.

About the Role

Key Responsibilities

- Partner with Immunology leaders to identify critical business questions and strategic priorities.
- Translate complex data into actionable insights and business recommendations.
- Integrate customer, market, competitive, and performance data into a unified business narrative.
- Identify growth opportunities, risks, and performance gaps to support decision-making.
- Influence brand strategy, resource allocation, and customer engagement planning.
- Collaborate across marketing, medical, market access, finance, and analytics teams.
- Deliver insight-driven recommendations to support business planning and execution.

Essential Requirements

- Bachelor's degree in Business, Life Sciences, Statistics, Economics, or a related field.
- Experience working within the pharmaceutical or healthcare industry.
- Strong business acumen and understanding of commercial business drivers.
- Proven ability to analyze data and translate findings into strategic recommendations.
- Excellent communication, storytelling, and stakeholder management skills.
- Experience partnering effectively with marketing and commercial teams.
- Advanced English communication skills, both written and verbal.
- Strong problem-solving mindset with the ability to influence decisions through data.
- Fluent in English and Portuguese.

Desirable Requirements

- Experience within Immunology, Rheumatology, Dermatology, or specialty biologics markets.
- Experience working with market audit, customer relationship management, and commercial performance data sources.
